

Name: _____

Ethics Unit: Final Exam

True/False (5 points)

Instructions: Read through the following statements and answer whether the statement is true or false. Write a T for true, and an F for false on the line next to the statement.

- _____ 1. WWI and the Vietnam War were not completely supported by Americans.
- _____ 2. In "Harrison Bergeron," Harrison successfully becomes emperor of the United States.
- _____ 3. Peter Stockman is married.
- _____ 4. The Stockman family decides not to sail to America.
- _____ 5. In "The Lottery," Mrs. Delacroix is selected for the lottery.

Multiple Choice (5 points)

Instructions: Read through the following statements or questions and choose the best possible answer.

6. Which of the following examples best supports "Harrison Bergeron" being a dystopian story?
- a. Harrison Bergeron has been arrested because he is a danger to the nation.
 - b. People who are above average have been given handicaps in order to make everyone equal.
 - c. The Handicapper General has a gun.
 - d. The news reporter must report Harrison's escape.
7. What is Kirsten Springs?
- a. a health center
 - b. a water park
 - c. a factory
 - d. a day spa
8. Who does the People's Daily Messenger decide to support?
- a. Petra Stockman
 - b. Tom Stockman
 - c. Peter Stockman
 - d. Captain Horster
9. What is the main conflict in An Enemy of the People?
- a. The town's water supply is poisoned.
 - b. Tom and Peter are always arguing.
 - c. The town's leaders are corrupt.
 - d. Petra and Hovstad are secretly in love.

10. What do the townspeople in "The Lottery" remember about the lottery?

- a. why they do the lottery
- b. what the official of the lottery is supposed to do.
- c. where the black box came from
- d. what the stones are for

Fill in the blank (5 points)

Instructions: Read through the following statements and choose the best possible answer to finish the statement.

11. Dystopian stories are usually set in _____.

- a. the past
- b. the present
- c. the future

12. _____ is the protagonist in An Enemy of the People.

- a. Dr. Stockman
- b. Petra
- c. Hovstad
- d. Peter Stockman

13. A journalist's role in society is to be a _____.

- a. a viper-writing stories that attack the subject.
- b. a fox-eavesdropping on the government
- c. a watchdog-alerting citizens to what is going on in society
- d. an elephant-stampeding all other journalists to get to a story first.

14. The town meeting in An Enemy of the People is moderated by _____.

- a. Hovstad
- b. Captain Horster
- c. Ejlif
- d. Aslaksen

15. "The Lottery" takes place in the _____.

- a. Spring
- b. Summer
- c. Winter
- d. Fall

Matching (5 points)

Instructions: Match the characters with the story they appear in.

Write the letter of the story next to the line of the character's name.

_____ 16. Old Man Warner

a. An Enemy of the People

_____ 17. Billing

b. "Harrison Bergeron"

_____ 18. Diana Moon Glampers

c. The Lottery

_____ 19. Bobby Martin

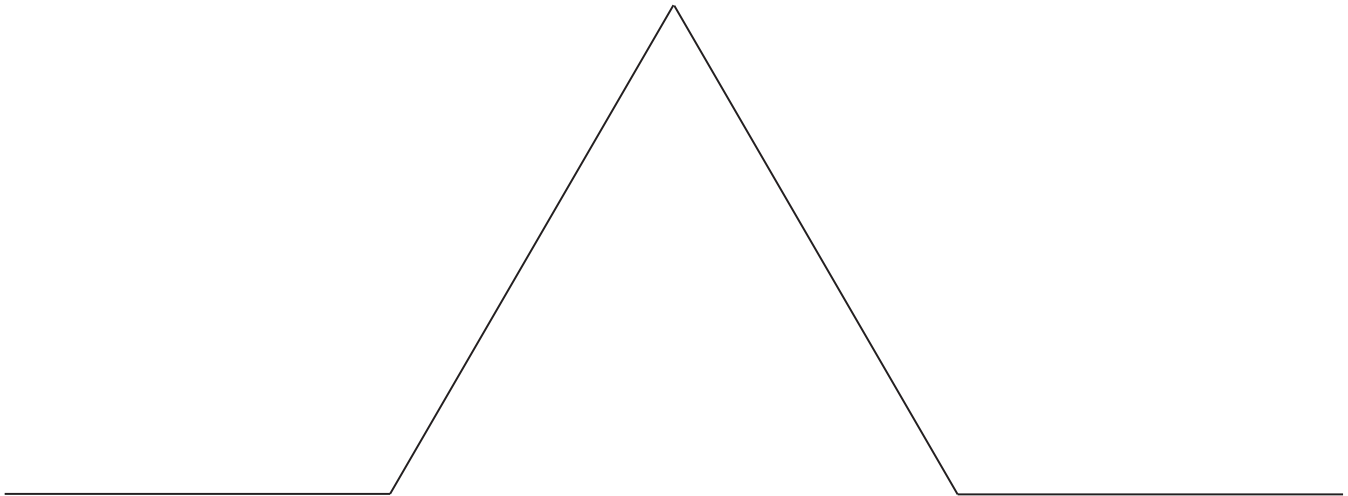

_____ 20. Morten Kiil

Short Answer (25 points)

Instructions: Answer all of the following questions in 3-5 sentences.

1. What is ethics?

2. Label the plot pyramid below and give a brief description of each event for either "Harrison Bergeron" or "The Lottery."

3. What are three elements of journalism? How do they help keep journalism objective?

4. What are the three parts of a persuasive essay? Why are they necessary?

5. Choose either "Harrison Bergeron" or "The Lottery" and write either a short prequel or resolution to that story. How was that society formed? What led to the main conflict? What happened after the last paragraph.

Essay questions (30 points)

Instructions: Choose one of the three questions and write at least two paragraphs answering the question. If you run out of room, finish your answer on the back of the paper.

1. Explain why finding a solution to an ethical situation is difficult.
2. Choose two of the following texts we have read: "Harrison Bergeron," "The Lottery" and An Enemy of the People. How are the ethical situations in these texts similar and how are they different? Explain with examples from the text.
3. In your opinion, who is the real enemy in An Enemy of the People? Explain with examples from the play.